

Voting in an Election Criteria

Who can vote in an Election:

A Person can vote in a municipal election if they:

1. Are at least 18 years or older on election day;
2. Are a Canadian Citizen on election day;
3. Have been a resident of Saskatchewan for at least six (6) consecutive months before election day; and either
4. Have been a resident of the Town of Outlook for at least three (3) consecutive months before election day OR have been the owner of assessable land in the Town of Outlook for at least three (3) consecutive months before election day.

Additional information about eligibility to vote:

- If a person lives in one municipality and has owned assessable land in another municipality for more than three (3) months, that person is able to vote in both municipal elections.
- A full-time student may vote in both the place where they study and the place they have moved from when both places are in Saskatchewan.
- A voter is a “natural person” and not a corporation.

Voter ID

Full details in identifications options for voting are available in the documents below. The simplest option is a government issued photo ID that includes your name and street address, but a number of other options are available. In the absence of photo ID, two pieces of identification are required, both of which have the voter’s name and at least one of which contains a civic address.
